

The Deity of the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is not a person of flesh and bones like you and I, but equal in nature with God the Father and Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit is God! Together they form what we know as the Trinity: God in three persons.

1. The Holy Spirit has divine attributes

- He can do everything. "He is All Powerful" (Luke 1:35).
- He knows everything. "He is Omniscient" (1 Corinthians 2:10 - 11).
- He is everywhere. "He is Omnipresent" (Psalms 139:7 - 10).

What other divine attribute does the Holy Spirit have according to Hebrews 9:14?

2. The Holy Spirit performs the works of God:

- He is Creator (Genesis 1:1-2)
- He has the power to resurrect (Romans 8:11).

The Holy Spirit is present in our salvation. What works does the Holy Spirit realize in our salvation? Read 1 Corinthians 6:11

The Work of the Holy Spirit in the Life of a Believer

The Holy Spirit has specific works in the life every believer. He is the One who gradually produces in us the character of Jesus Christ, thus giving us spiritual growth.

Jesus Christ promised that the Holy Spirit was not only going to be "with" the believer, but that He would be _____ the believer.

- Read 1 Corinthians 3:16. According to this verse, we are whose temple? And who lives in us?

The way in which we can "walk in the Spirit," is by following God's guidance given in His Word.

So far you know that the Holy Spirit is a Person, possesses the attributes of God and lives in you to produce spiritual growth. This is the moment for you to reflect the fruit of the Spirit as it is described in Galatians 5:22-23.

Jesus Christ is not physically present on earth today, but He promised that the Holy Spirit would always be with those who believed in Him. So let's get to know Him!

The Personality of the Holy Spirit

The presence of the Spirit of God in the life of a believer is not merely a source of power. He is not a mystical energy. The Holy Spirit is a person!
